"Be True to Your School" COOKOUT

Our Host is Jim Siegel

Jim is sharing his renowned culinary talents by catering our Reunion Cookout. Jim's wingman at the grill will be Jim Williams, classmate Sue Barofsky's husband. They plan a variety of grilled skewers and picnic accompaniments, plus beer/wine/non-alcoholic "libations". Thank you Jim for underwriting this event!

Jim Siegel is the 4th generation jeweler in his family. Now we know that he is a 2nd generation Foodie! Over the last 30 years his cooking interest became an avocation. Jim has catered delicious and creative meals to local school groups and non-profits that the Siegels support. His catering has brought smiles to Grand Rapids Rotary and Temple Emmanuel events.

Enjoy a Fall evening with your favorite beverage at the Yacht Club. Get to know classmates and their spouses/partners for a few hours while some of the women head to Stephanie McNamara's Dessert event downtown. Maybe share a few stories about former times and hangouts?

- The Glass Hut
- The Trading Post
- Jersey Junction
- Sinfonia Records

We can even help Jim Siegel pack up his cooking gear!

"Girls Just Wanna Have Fun!"

Our Host is Stephanie (Tourre) McNamara

Farewell to the women as they head to Stephanie's downtown condo for champagne and dessert. Steph is a legendary organizer in the GR non-profit world and has a long history in the fashion scene as well.

Friday evening with the girls may include stories about former times/places never shared with our parents.... "Did you really not know that? You were there!" (Laughter ensues.....)

Parking is easy at River House. Paid parking vouchers will be provided to drivers at the event. Some classmates may choose to carpool from the Cookout.
